

What is the Thanksgiving Outreach Feast?

For several years now, Salem has partnered with Salvation Army Santa Ana and Charity on Wheels (www.charityonwheels.com) to provide the homeless and needy in our community with a little extra love during the holiday season.

In one day, we provide a delicious, hot turkey dinner complete with pumpkin pie and beverages. We give away free sleeping bags, personal necessity bags, and blankets and jackets to those in need. Those who come are entertained by various local performing groups.

When and where will this take place?

Saturday, November 23, 2019, Noon-3pm at Salvation Army Santa Ana (1710 W. Edinger Ave., Santa Ana, CA 92704). Volunteer hours: 11am-4pm. Please join us for training on Sunday, November 17th at noon at Salem.

How can I get involved?

- 1 - Sponsor meals, sleeping bags, and personal necessity bags using the form on the other side of this page or by using your Give+ or Church Center app (designate your donation as "Season of Hope").
- 2 - Donate new or gently used blankets or jackets. These can be dropped off at Salem on Sunday mornings or from Mon-Fri, 8am-4pm.
- 3 - Volunteer to set up, serve food, or tear down on Saturday, November 23rd between 11am-4pm. A MANDATORY training will be held at Salem on Sunday, November 17th for all volunteers at noon.

Thanks for helping us spread Jesus' love!
