ACADEMICS

Salem offers a superior Christian education that emphasizes academic excellence through development of the whole child. Highly qualified teachers, small class sizes and a diverse curriculum allow students to achieve their God-given potential.

Salem sets the benchmark as an Apple Distinguished School utilizing the latest iPad and laptop technology.

Salem has an unprecedented history of feeding exceptional students into local High Schools. In 2015 and 2016 two out of three Orange Lutheran High "Honored Scholars" were graduates of Salem. In addition, one out of two "Spirit of Christ" winners were Salem alumni.

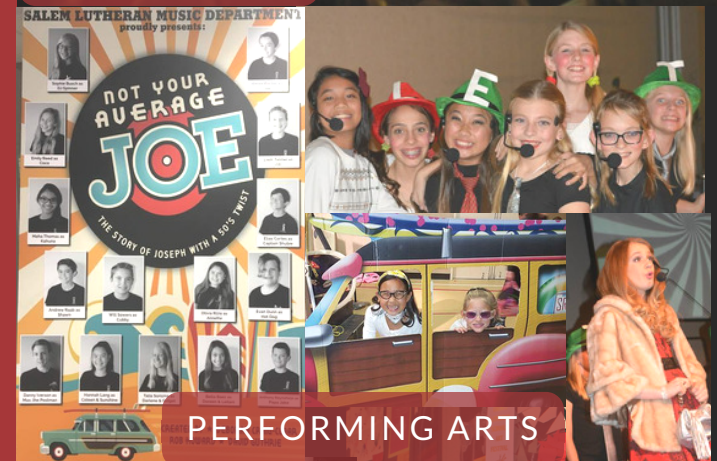

Graduates from Salem have gone on to some of America's most prestigious universities, including Berkeley, Harvard, USC, Vanderbilt and Yale.
